

The arrows on the aerial photo indicate proper traffic flow. The south side of the building is where most people choose to drop off their students. The yellow arrows indicate where cars can stop to drop off students, while the red arrows indicate where traffic should continue to flow. The painted lines and text indicate where to drop off and where to pull through. Please stay within the painted lines when dropping off students.

